

Certificate of Competency

BAC DataMaster

and

Basic Science of Evidential
Breath Alcohol Testing

Jeanette S. Miller

Has successfully completed the 24 hour instruction requirement in the theory of Science of Evidential Breath Alcohol Testing including alcohol and human physiology, practical issues, theory and operation of infrared breath alcohol testing, field and laboratory applications. This course is modeled on the format and content of training requirements for BAC DataMaster Supervisor program. The holder of this certificate is deemed competent to operate, perform essential diagnostic verifications and calibration checks on the instrument.

February 8, 2008

Date

Mansfield, Ohio

John D. Fusco, Instructor

David M. Radomski, Instructor